

Nebojša Banović (Podgorica, 1983)

Having finished elementary and grammar school in Podgorica, he has entered the Faculty of Philosophy at the University of Montenegro where he graduated in 2007. He has finished his Master studies at the same University in 2011 where, under mentorship of Prof. dr Drago Perovic, he presented his master paper "Constitution of subjectivity in the philosophy of Richard Rorty". Afterwards in 2016/2017 he has started to follow doctor studies at the Department for Philosophy, at the University of Philosophy in Belgrade. His main fields of studies are issues regarding philosophy, politics, aesthetics, hermeneutics, ontology.

He has been employed at the University of Montenegro, Department for Philosophy, Niksic since 2011 as Assistant at the following subjects: Medieval Philosophy, History of New Age Philosophy, Contemporary and Applied Ethics, Introduction into Ethics, History of Ethics.